APPLICATION AND ADMISSION TO NORTHWESTERN PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Northwestern accepts any student of high school rank regardless of race, sex or religion who can furnish satisfactory references as to character and previous school work. Application for admission should be submitted by email or on a form you may request. The number of students is limited in order to keep classes at a minimum for effectiveness.

Incoming students will find a friendly, studious atmosphere at Northwestern Prep where standards of conduct and personal neatness are those expected of ladies and gentlemen everywhere. Minor infractions of regulations are dealt with by loss of leisure time privileges and restrictions. Serious offenses may result in dismissal. The school reserves the right to dismiss at any time any student who is delinquent in his studies or who is not in accord with the school's concept of proper conduct. The school reserves the right of final decision in all cases. Where disciplinary dismissal occurs, the school will retain, through forfeiture, any or all of the fees due and payable for the remainder of the school year.

IN CONCLUSION

The Northwestern Preparatory School neither promises nor attempts to make the student think that by merely attending this school the student will receive nor can be guaranteed receipt of an appointment. With application and proper guidance our students consistently, year after year, stand high in their state or district congressional competition.
